Sunday Bulletin

Hymn 8am & 10am We are blessed people singing (8am see sheet)

Sentence from Scripture

'My grace is sufficient for you,' says the Lord, 'for my power is made perfect in weakness.' 2 Corinthians 12.9

Prayer of the Day

O God, by the preaching of Paul your apostle, you have caused the light of the Gospel to shine throughout time and space.
Grant that, as we remember Paul and all who have gone before us,
we may show ourselves thankful to you
by following their example.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Prayer for St Paul's

Come Holy Spirit breathe through us:

Enable us to know and make known the connection between You and the everyday.

Help us to be relevant and approachable to the community,
to engage inclusively with them and each other,
and to stay connected with you.

Enable us to show Christ's unconditional love in action.

This we ask in Jesus name, Amen.

A Reading from The Book of Ezekiel

For thus says the Lord God : I myself will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. As shepherds seek out their flocks when they are among their scattered sheep, so I will seek out my sheep. I will rescue them from all the places to which they have been scattered on a day of clouds and thick darkness. I will bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited parts of the land. I will feed them with good pasture, and the mountain heights of Israel shall be their pasture; there they shall lie down in good grazing land, and they shall feed on rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will make them lie down, says the Lord God . I will seek the lost, and I will bring back the strayed, and I will bind up the injured, and I will strengthen the weak, but the fat and the strong I will destroy. I will feed them with justice. Ezekiel 34.11-16
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34.1-10

I will bless the Lord continually:

his praise shall be always in my mouth.

Let my soul boast of the Lord:

the humble shall hear it and rejoice.

O praise the Lord with me:

let us exalt his name together.

For I sought the Lord's help and he answered:

and he freed me from all my fears.

Look towards him and be bright with joy:

your faces shall not be ashamed.

Here is a wretch who cried, and the Lord heard me:

and saved me from all my troubles.

The angel of the Lord encamps round those who fear him:

and delivers them in their need.

O taste and see that the Lord is good:

happy are they that hide in him!

Fear the Lord, all you his holy ones:

for those who fear him never lack.

Lions may suffer want and go hungry:

but those who seek the Lord lack nothing good.

A Reading from The Second letter of Paul to Timothy

As for me, I am already being poured out as a libation, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have longed for his appearing. But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the message might be fully proclaimed and all the Gentiles might hear it. So I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and save me for his heavenly kingdom. To him be the glory for ever and ever. Amen. 2 Timothy 4.6-8, 17-18
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Hymn 8am God called Paul from hate to loving (T: TiS 569)see sheet 10am TiS 182 Bring many names

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He said to him, 'Yes, Lord; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Tend my sheep.' He said to him the third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, 'Do you love me?' And he said to him, 'Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.' (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, 'Follow me.' Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; he was the one who had reclined next to Jesus at the supper and had said, ‘Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?’ When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, ‘Lord, what about him?’ Jesus said to him, ‘If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!’

John 21.15-22

From the dean

I have been at Clergy Conference this week where we have had a bible study on the book of Jonah, discussed youth ministry and intergenerational worship. The speaker on intergenerational worship reminded us that if we have people from 50 years to 100 years we have several generations worshipping together! He spoke of the characteristics of different decades in terms of expectations and ways of living in the world. Deepening and growing an Intergenerational perspective means doing more together and less separately. It means Mutuality, Equality, Reciprocity, Respect. It means worship includes: Surprise, Wonder, Delight, and Fun. I wonder how we are going on this? He suggests we take age out of discussion and look at interests and abilities. He wondered about having activities sheets for all interested, not only children, and teaming up two generations for some tasks, and having more opportunities for intergenerational mixing. We already do a lot of this, look at all the people that were at our lunch, trivia night, and when the Grammar and Trinity came to the Cathedral, and the Palm Sunday Service

Today we celebrate St Paul's Day, honouring the Patron Saint of the Cathedral and celebrating the broader cathedral community, giving thanks for those who have nurtured us to this point and honouring those who are our future.

What do you remember of St Paul from the scriptures? Perhaps his dramatic conversion? His words of encouragement and challenge? His teaching? His travels?

What inspires you? What does it mean to be a cathedral named after him?

To me Romans 8 is the key, he almost gives a scientific view of the world, 'the whole creation groaning'. We are part of a whole universe that comes from God, through God, and to God, and is sustained by God. (Romans 11:36)

Paul is a profound thinker, very modern in many respects, and very revolutionary. He breaks down the walls of prejudice, and small-mindedness, opens us up to the possibility of change and helps us to adapt to a changing world, for example breaking down the barriers,

'There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. Galatians 3:28 (NIV)

God is not partial to any one race. Pentecost shows us this is true, and St Paul captures this vision.

There is much to celebrate and much to inspire us today in Paul's writings.

Let the celebrations begin!

Susanna is planning to lead a small group in reading, 'The Artist's Rule: Nurturing your Creative Soul' by Christine Valters Paintner.

The book explores the relationship between contemplative practices and creative expression. It explores themes like Sacred Tools and Sacred Space, Creative Solitude and Community, and Nature as a Source of Revelation and Inspiration. Each chapter offers suggestions for grounding both the creative and the spiritual life through three basic practices: walking, lectio divina, and journaling. It is a wonderful, practical guide based on the Benedictine tradition, Celtic and desert spirituality and can offer 'artists', including the artist within each of us, new inspiration and depth.

She would like to gather regularly to explore the book and the practices it offers, imagining meeting fortnightly 11.30am -1pm Wednesdays, beginning 25th July. Please let me know Susanna if this interests you. All welcome.
