Sunday Bulletin

Hymn 8am & 10am TiS 680 God as With Silent Hearts (Tune TiS 87 )

Sentence from Scripture

'No one has greater love than this, than to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends,' says the Lord, 'if you do what I command you.' John 15.13

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God,
Whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son,
the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit.
One God, now and forever.

Amen.

Help us to be relevant and approachable to the community,
to engage inclusively with them and each other,
and to stay connected with you.

Enable us to show Christ's unconditional love in action.

This we ask in Jesus name, Amen.

A Reading from The Prophet Micah

In days to come

the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains, and shall be raised up above the hills.

Peoples shall stream to it,

and many nations shall come and say:

'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord,
to the house of the God of Jacob;

that he may teach us his ways

and that we may walk in his paths.'

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.

He shall judge between many peoples,

and shall arbitrate between strong nations far away;

they shall beat their swords into ploughshares,

and their spears into pruning-hooks;

nation shall not lift up sword against nation,

neither shall they learn war any more;

but they shall all sit under their own vines and under their own fig trees,

and no one shall make them afraid;

for the mouth of the Lord of hosts has spoken. Micah 4.1-4

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength,
a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change,
though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea;
though its waters roar and foam,
though the mountains tremble with its tumult.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God,
the holy habitation of the Most High.

God is in the midst of the city; it shall not be moved;
God will help it when the morning dawns.

The nations are in an uproar, the kingdoms totter;
he utters his voice, the earth melts.

The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of the Lord;
see what desolations he has brought on the earth.

He makes wars cease to the end of the earth;
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

‘Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth.’

The Lord of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

A Reading from the Letter to the Romans

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person - though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us.

Romans 5.1-8

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Hymn 8am & 10am TiS 657 God of Freedom, (Tune TiS 497)

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you; abide in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. I have said these things to you so that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete.

'This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

John 15.9-17

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

We shall keep the faith

By Moina Michael, November 1918

Oh! You who sleep in Flanders Fields,
Sleep sweet - to rise anew!
We caught the torch you threw
And holding high, we keep the Faith
With all who died

We cherish, too, the poppy red
That grows on fields where valour led;
It seems to signal to the skies
That blood of heroes never dies,
But lends a lustre to the red
Of the flower that blooms above the dead
In Flanders Fields.

And now the Torch and Poppy Red
We wear in honour of our dead.
Fear not that ye have died for naught;
We'll teach the lesson that ye wrought
In Flanders Fields.

Having read John McCrae's poem 'In Flanders Fields', Moina Michael made a personal pledge to 'keep the faith'. She felt compelled to make a note of this pledge and hastily scribbled down a response entitled 'We shall keep the faith' on the back of a used envelope. From that day she vowed to wear a red poppy of Flanders Fields as a sign of remembrance.( www.greatwar.co.uk.)

Today, we remember too, and also wear a poppy for remembrance.
Today, we remember those who have died, and we pray for our defence force and all personnel serving to maintain peace in our world.

Thank you to our preacher The Reverend Andrew Knox, RAAF Chaplain for preaching, and to Bishop Richard for celebrating. Thank you to all who are here to mark this day.

Thank you to Stan and Robyn Bruhn and all who helped make our Pleasant Afternoon last weekend so delightful and successful. We raised just over $800. Thank you so much everyone.

This afternoon from 130pm - 4pm on there will be a Contemplative Quiet Afternoon at the Botanic Gardens. It will be a time of quiet prayer. We will gather for a reflection then spend time in the beauty of the botanic gardens. You may like to bring a chair, and a journal, and some water. Please put your name on the list, or let me know if you are coming. We will gather at the LEAF to begin.

Bishop's regional gathering for our region is being held at the Anglican church at Bairnsdale at 2pm - 4pm on 18th November. It is an opportunity to meet with Bishop Richard, to listen to his insights on where we are and where we are heading, and to share with him our thoughts. I hope many of us can car pool and be there. Please sign up if you're planning to come.

There will be a service on the weekend of 8 December, time to be confirmed to honour our farmers and those affected by the drought here in East Gippsland, and to pray for rain.

For your diary, save the date: Service of Lessons and Carols 5pm on 16th December at the cathedral.

I will be leading a retreat for the World Community of Christian Meditation next weekend at Pallotti College. Nikolai will be taking services at the cathedral. I will be back for messy church.

Love to you all, Susanna
