A Reading from the Prophet Jeremiah

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare. Jeremiah 29.1, 4-7

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 66.1-11

O shout with joy to God, all the earth:

sing to the honour of his name,
and give him glory as his praise.

Say to God 'How fearful are your works:

because of your great might your enemies shall cower before you.'

All the earth shall worship you:

and sing to you, and sing praises to your name.

Come then and see what God has done:

how terrible are his dealings with the children of Adam.

He turned the sea into dry land,

they crossed the river on foot:

then were we joyful because of him.

By his power he rules for ever,
his eyes keep watch on the nations:
and rebels shall never rise against him.
O bless our God, you peoples:
and cause his praises to resound,
Who has held our souls in life:
who has not suffered our feet to slip.
For you have proved us, O God:
you have tried us as silver is tried.
You brought us into the net:
you laid sharp torment on our loins.
You let our enemies ride over our heads,
we went through fire and water:
but you brought us out into a place of liberty.

A Reading from The Second Letter to Timothy

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David—that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;

if we endure, we will also reign with him;

if we deny him, he will also deny us;

if we are faithless, he remains faithful—

for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening.

Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth. 2 Timothy 2.8-15

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, ‘Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!’ When he saw them, he said to them, ‘Go and show yourselves to the priests.’ And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, ‘Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?’ Then he said to him, ‘Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.’ Luke 17.11-19

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean’s reflection

Having spent the last couple of weeks being sick and in isolation, I can understand the “leper” syndrome! Covid has heightened our fear of other people’s diseases – with good reason, as we really don’t want to catch the flu, or covid, or other nasties that are going around.

Leprosy is a disease which still today carries a burden of social stigma; in the ancient world which lacked antibiotics and other ways of treatment, it could be a death sentence. Still today those who manifest symptoms often find their extremities threatened, as one of the effects of the infection is loss of feeling in fingers and toes. In our gospel reading we hear of ten lepers who came to Jesus seeking healing from their disease. The most remarkable thing is that it’s not really a story about the ten, but about the one – the one who, being healed on the way to the temple as instructed, turned around and came back to thank Jesus. And this guy, we’re told, was a Samaritan, an outsider.

What about the other nine, we wonder? Were they good Jewish folk who simply followed Jesus’ order to go show themselves to the priest – as the law of Moses required for those healed of infectious skin diseases? What was their motive? In any case, this one faithful guy comes back – and it’s interesting because while the other dudes presumably also experienced alleviation from their illness, only of him is the word used which means “made whole”. Clearly, the implication is that it’s through connection with Jesus, through relationship with him, that we are made whole, not just healed, but made whole, body, mind and spirit.

In this week ahead, may we turn to Jesus with whatever we’re carrying, and find ourselves made whole.

So if you go to the church Plant Sale for plants and Devonshire tea you may like to follow up your morning out at Bunnings for a sausage sizzle lunch.

Prayer Chain

A huge thank you to Naomi who has indicated she's no longer able to look after the prayer chain. Naomi has willingly given years of service in this ministry, passing along any prayer needs through the Cathedral community. We are grateful for her kindness and compassion in praying for others all this time.

We are looking for someone who's willing to take up this ministry. It's not overly demanding; there are usually one or two prayer points a month, and there's a simple to use structure already in place. If you are willing to offer this ministry, please contact Keren.

In 2019, Stuart was the recipient of the generous grant from the Vera Moore Foundation to attend the RSCM Sydney Inspires Conference. It was the largest church music conference held in Australia for many years and had some very distinguished international presenters including John Rutter, Barry Rose and David Hill. Stuart will share some insights and reflections from this conference.

In addition, he will provide copies of music suitable for use in parish churches with minimal resources and small numbers of choir members. He will present many new hymns written by contemporary musicians which can be sung to well-known tunes – which makes them more readily accessible to congregations. Each attendee will take home a pack of suggested hymns and some music suitable for small choirs. There will be details supplied of sources of new hymns and music and suggestions offered on managing a choir and structuring an effective rehearsal strategy.

Stuart has worked in New Zealand (his homeland) as a provincial Cathedral Organist at St John's Cathedral Napier (the art deco city) and has been a parish church organist in Adelaide and Melbourne.

Prior to retirement he was director of music at the Hamilton and Alexandra College in Western Victoria and for a short time Acting Head of Keyboard at Scotch College, Melbourne. He currently teaches piano at Christ Church Grammar School, South Yarra and at Sacred Heart Girls College Oakleigh and is resident pianist at Bishops Court in Melbourne.

He has a wealth of knowledge of the problems facing church musicians and will offer practical solutions that may be useful and have proved successful in many churches.
