Sentence of Scripture

My eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.

Luke 2.30–32

Prayer of the Day

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only Son was presented in the temple
in accordance with the law,
so we may be dedicated to you with pure and clean hearts;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

We have a duty of care to protect all who participate in the life of the church from abuse. We have zero tolerance for abuse of any kind.

If you are concerned about your own or somebody else's safety, or have witnessed behaviour that makes you feel uncomfortable you can contact the Deputy Director of Professional Standards in the Gippsland Diocese, Julie Reilly Mobile: 0456 572 589 Email: julie@kooyoora.org.au You may also like to talk to the Dean or the Lay Canons, or if this is a really serious matter, go directly to the police, and then to the above.

A Reading from the Prophet Malachi

See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight - indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears?

For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Malachi 3.1-4

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 24

The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it:

the compass of the world and those who dwell therein.

For he has founded it upon the seas:

and established it upon the waters.

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord:

or who shall stand in his holy place?

Those who have clean hands and a pure heart:

who have not set their soul upon idols,
nor sworn their oath to a lie.

They shall receive blessing from the Lord:

and recompense from the God of their salvation.

Of such a kind as this are those who seek him:

those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O you gates,

and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory?:

the Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O you gates,

and be lifted up, you everlasting doors:

and the King of glory shall come in.

Who is the King of glory?:

the Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory.

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Hebrews 2.14-18

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, 'Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord'), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, 'a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.'

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace,
according to your word;
for my eyes have seen your salvation,
which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples,
a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed - and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him. Luke 2.22-40

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection:

There can be no doubt that the Temple in Jerusalem would have been awe-inspiring. It visibly reminded people of their religious practices and obligations. Faithful people understood that these behaviours would enable them to be closer to God. Mary and Joseph do this for their son. They believed that God cherished their obedience. As people of the new covenant, we know we are liberated by grace through faith and not through the law. Yet, we also know that rituals and routines can guide us when our faith-journey experiences turbulence.

- Pray for clergy supporting healthy religious practices that enable people to grow in their discipleship.
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the Anglican Church of Kenya

Lenten study Books

It is titled “Living in Harmony” and uses the weekly lectionary readings. The reflections are not long and questions for reflection are also included. “Harmony is a discipline. At its best, it is built around the joyful play of difference, a mutual love and respect, and a treasuring of other voices and ways.”

“How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!”

Psalm 133:1

The books have arrived – and are $8 each.

Rev Kate is planning on meeting in the Lady Chapel on Wednesdays, 5.30-7pm, though happy to negotiate if that is helpful.

Rev Heather will lead a day time group.

A sign in sheet will be in the foyer or contact Rev Kate.

GIANT BOOK FAIR Raffle

OVER 1000 were sold, and ‘Julie’ won first and second prize and chose Colins Bookshop for her vouchers. Bernie won 3rd, and donated it to the emergency Food.

The Gippsland Anglican
CELEBRATING 120 YEARS
Published in Gippsland Diocese since 1904

www.gippslandanglicans.org.au

This year, we celebrate the 120th anniversary of our flagship publication, The Gippsland Anglican (TGA). This is a monumental achievement by all Parishes and people of Gippsland from the earliest days of our Diocese to now. It's an achievement we can all be proud of.

We invite you to support our shared TGA ministry through Letters to the Editor and articles. We warmly welcome your subscriptions and donations.

We are happy to share with you the celebration masthead that will be used throughout 2024.

Ask your TGA Rep or Rector about contributing.

The Abbey's first Hush Quiet Day for 2024 will be held on Thursday 8th February 2024.

Cath will be presenting on the topic of the Celtic Wheel of the year, bringing insights into how to live in balance with the seasons and cycles of both the turning globe and the liturgical year.

10.00am – 3.00pm. Donation - $20 BYO lunch and journal.

Morning and afternoon tea provided.
