John 10.14*

Prayer of the Day

Jesus, good shepherd of the sheep,
by whom the lost are sought
and guided into the fold:
feed us and we shall be satisfied,
heal us and we shall be whole,
and lead us that we may be with you,
where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen

Cathedral Prayer Chain Requests

Please contact Rev'd Kate Campbell 0402514829

The prayer chain is for anyone in need of prayer

Our parish is committed to ensuring our centres of worship and outreach are safe places for all, especially children and vulnerable people.

We have a duty of care to protect all who participate in the life of the church from abuse. We have zero tolerance for abuse of any kind.

If you are concerned about your own or somebody else's safety, or have witnessed behaviour that makes you feel uncomfortable you can contact the Deputy Director of Professional Standards in the Gippsland Diocese, Julie Reilly Mobile: 0456 572 589
Email: julie@kooyoora.org.au You may also like to talk to the Dean or the Lay Canons, or if this is a really serious matter, go directly to the police, and then to the above.

Please pray for our supported student Moses Baiduduga at Newton College PNG.

A Reading from The Acts to the Apostles

The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family.

When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, 'By what power or by what name did you do this?'

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, 'Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead.

This Jesus is

“the stone that was rejected by you, the builders;
it has become the cornerstone.”

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved.’ Acts 4.5-12

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd:

therefore can I lack nothing.

He will make me lie down in green pastures:

and lead me beside still waters.

He will refresh my soul:

and guide me in right pathways for his name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil:

for you are with me, your rod and your staff comfort me.

You spread a table before me

in the face of those who trouble me:

you have anointed my head with oil,

and my cup shall be full.

Surely your goodness and loving-kindness

will follow me all the days of my life:

and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

A Reading from the First Letter of John

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us—and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help? Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him. And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

1 John 3.16-24

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

'I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father.'

John 10.11-18

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

The Good Shepherd

The Good Shepherd always walks in front
Gently leading the way,
Never behind driving or pushing,
But lovingly guiding each day;
And when a sheep wanders away
From the security of this place,
The Shepherd corrects the wayward one
In love, mercy, and grace.
He protects from harm and fear
All that follow His lead,
His rod and staff guard and comfort,
And His hand meets every need;
He provides beautiful green pastures -
Rest for the weary and weak,
Revival, strength and vigor...
Peace and joy to reap.
He sets a table in the wilderness
With manna from on high,
And leads beside the still waters
That refresh and satisfy.
Oh, what love and tender care,
Such blessings God bestows
Upon the sheep that closely follow
The way The Shepherd goes.

The Contemplative Service on tonight.

The Ecumenical Medieval 1662 Celebration of Evensong at 4.30pm is on this Sunday 21st, at Holy Trinity Church Stratford, this being the first Sunday of the Shakespeare Festival. A light tea of soup, sandwiches and slices, will be served following the service. Dean Keren will preside and Stratford Singers will give choral music. Rev'd Dr. Tim Gaden, a scholar of Shakespearian Literature will preach the sermon.

Yvonne McPherson passed from this life peacefully this past week. Yvonne quietly ministered to and was a faithful friend to so many people. We will miss her, and her cooking, especially her jelly slices! We extend our love, prayers and sympathy to Arthur, Donna, Peter and family at this sad time. Yvonne's service will be at St Paul's on Wednesday at 1pm, followed by afternoon tea in the hall. Nancy needs helpers please.

Today during the St Paul Services, there will be the opportunity to light a candle in memory of Iain, Beryl and Yvonne, near beautiful flowers. Huge thank you to Lyn R and Julie M for all the flower arrangements for Iain's memorial service that we can continue to enjoy.

Iain Miller Memorial Service is available via our usual St Paul livestream, <https://youtube.com/live/6EjG-KquBPM> A new one with a better quality version of the photo presentation available soon, as will be a DVD.

The Dean's Scholarships have been given to Jessica and Caroline Martin for 2024. We congratulate them and look forward to hearing them sing and play instruments.

St Paul's Hymnlovers

After last year's great success, we're once again inviting everyone to fill out your favourite hymn choices on the slips provided and return them to Keren. Your favourite hymns will be scheduled Sunday by Sunday from July.

The Music Foundation will have their official launch with a Saturday Soiree on Saturday 4th May at 5pm. The program will feature a range of music, harp, organ, voice and piano followed by drinks and nibbles. Tickets are $20, $15 concession on <https://trybooking.com/CQUIH>

On Sunday 5th May @ 2.30pm Lachlan Redd sub-organist from St. Paul's Cathedral Melbourne will perform a short concert showcasing our organ. Free entry so invite your family and friends.

Mavis Jennings recently passed away and we will be holding a memorial service for her and Bill on 11th May at 3pm.

This year marks the 140th anniversary of St. Paul's Cathedral and we will have a special service on 13th October.

Mission of the Month: TEARFUND

TEARFUND is a Christian agency working for a just and compassionate world. Please see the Missions noticeboard for more information. There are also a few Useful Gift Catalogues on the table as you leave the church. Pick one up to find out more.

Tearfund works in partnership with locally-based Christian agencies who understand the needs of their communities, and are in the best position to develop responses that are relevant and sustainable.

They support grassroots initiatives where community members, especially those most impacted by poverty and marginalisation, participate at every level of implementation.

They tackle the root causes of poverty and injustice, recognising that needs are complex and interrelated. They intentionally prioritise projects in some of the most challenging contexts around the world because they/we are called to be where the need is greatest. At Tearfund, they call these "hard places".

Tearfund approaches our partnerships with a biblical understanding: one of shared faith, deep value and mutual respect.

Please wear your namebadge, to the services as well as to morning tea, so we can all get to know your names. If you don't have one, see Christine.

Morning prayer

Please join Dean Keren in the Cathedral for Morning Prayer every Friday at 9am. We'll pray for our parish and diocese, and any other concerns pray-ers may have!

The (10am) service each week is live streamed. (Search St Paul's Cathedral Sale when in YouTube) <https://www.youtube.com/@stpaulscathedralsale/streams>

Coming up at The Abbey

Wednesday April 24th - The Creation Windows through Literature, Art, and Music: A series of reflections shaped around the stained-glass windows at the chapel of St Barnabas, The Abbey. April focus – Fish, birds and animals.

Facilitators: Sue Fordham and June Treadwell.

11.00am – 2.30pm. Donation - $20 BYO lunch and journal. Morning and afternoon tea provided. Please RSVP by April 15th.

Saturday April 27th – Back to Raymond Island: Come revisit those memories. This is the big one. We have a marvellous day planned, with talks, Eucharist, tours and music ceili in the evening. Bishop Richard will be celebrating Eucharist, assisted by our Abbey Chaplain Jeff Berger. Edie Ashley will be preaching. Clem and Stewart Taplin are leading a session in the morning on capturing memories of A'Beckett Park / The Abbey, and I will be leading an afternoon session on visioning the future. We have planned a very special day. There is lots of excitement around this chance to reconnect with those who shared time here. Do let us know if you are coming – we need to know for catering purposes as well as to look forward to your arrival.
