A Reading from the Book of Proverbs

Does not wisdom call,

and does not understanding raise her voice?

On the heights, beside the way,

at the crossroads she takes her stand;

beside the gates in front of the town,

at the entrance of the portals she cries out:

'To you, O people, I call,

and my cry is to all that live.

The Lord created me at the beginning of his work,

the first of his acts of long ago.

Ages ago I was set up,

at the first, before the beginning of the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,

when there were no springs abounding with water.

Before the mountains had been shaped,

before the hills, I was brought forth—

when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil.

When he established the heavens, I was there,

when he drew a circle on the face of the deep,

when he made firm the skies above,

when he established the fountains of the deep,

when he assigned to the sea its limit,

so that the waters might not transgress his command,
when he marked out the foundations of the earth,
then I was beside him, like a master worker;
and I was daily his delight,
rejoicing before him always,
rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race. Proverbs 8.1-4, 22-31
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalms 8

O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth:
your splendour fills the heavens.
From the mouths of infants you render strength against your enemies:
to silence the vengeful foe.
When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers:
the moon and stars, which you have set in place,
What is humanity, that you remember them?:
who are mortals, that you consider them?
You have made them little less than God:
and crowned them with glory and honour.
You appointed them over the works of your hands:
and laid everything at their feet.
Sheep and cattle, every last one:
and even the beasts of the field,
The birds of the sky and the fish of the sea:
all that moves in the watery depths.
O Lord, our Lord:
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

A Reading from The Letter to the Romans

Therefore, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. Romans 5.1-5
Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Jesus said 'I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you. John 16.12-15

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Reflection

Christians believe that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are distinct Persons, that each Person is fully God, and that there is only one God. Today we celebrate this belief which marks us out as being different from other monotheistic religions as well as all polytheistic ones.

- 'I bind unto myself today the strong name of the Trinity by invocation of the same, the Three in One and One in Three.'
- Give thanks for the work and witness of the CAPA, the Council of the Anglican Provinces of Africa.

ANGLICAN BOARD OF MISSION
Working for Love, Hope & Justice

Dean's Desk

This week has oriented itself around twin poles: the funeral for Jamie Miller the bishop, Dave Perryman and I took on Wednesday, and the Gippsland Grammar Board Strategy days over Friday and Saturday. Twin poles, if you like, of life and death, age and youth, a life lived well, and setting the conditions for lives to be lived well into the future.

At the strategy days we considered emerging trends in education and the question of wine and wineskins: as in, the challenges young people are going to face as they enter the workforce will be very different from in the past, so what kind of education do they need to be able to be adaptable and flexible? We also considered financial modelling, risk, and heard more about how pastoral care is anticipated to be implemented in the school going forward, as well as the wellbeing programme being developed under the school's strategic plan.

Does that sound dry? I found it unexpectedly engaging, and was very impressed with the hard work being done by senior staff who really care about the school and its primary focus: the students.

Today is Trinity Sunday and we celebrate our God who is Three and yet One, who is at the heart of it, most concerned with relationship.

May we be granted the grace today to be folded into the circle of God's own life.

You are warmly invited to attend the midyear concert of Yallourn Madrigal Singers entitled My Family and Other Animals. on Saturday 28 June at 2.00 pm at St James Anglican Church, Grey St Traralgon.

The Modawa Institute of Higher Education in Popondetta PNG has taken another step forward with classes starting in the David Hand School of Teaching. A class of 18 students has commenced studies for a Bachelor of Education (Primary Teaching), alongside a class of similar size in Theology. Principal, Bishop Jeffrey Driver, said this first year intake in education was intentionally a small one. "This is a soft start. We are learning and growing, introducing new staff and new requirements, so we want our take our time and build carefully".

Bishop Jeffrey said the small intake also reflected the poor standards in secondary education across the Northern Province. "While there were many more applicants for the course, a majority did not meet the entry level required by Government authorities. This in its own way underlines the importance of developing teacher-training in this part of the country. Ultimately it will lift the standards for education in a part of the country that is educationally disadvantaged".

Preparations for this development have been going on for about two years, with enlargements to lecture theatres, improvements to the library, ICT, and staff housing. Staffing has had to be expanded, with qualified academics in the disciplines required by the national curriculum for teacher training. The cost of some of this additional staffing will eventually be met by the Department of Higher Education, but in the meantime the institute has to carefully manage a much-expanded budget while at the same time still investing in more infrastructure.

Students in Theology In the meantime, the institute has a new intake in theology, with about 17 ordinands and eight day students. With Fr Giles Motisi in Australia to work part-time in a parish (Moe/Newborough) and further his studies, Fr Gabriel Manae has been appointed Deputy Principal by the Governing Council. Fr Spencer Kombega has also joined the academic team.

Students this year come from the dioceses of Popondetta, Aipo Rongo, New Guinea Islands and Dogura. Most will be studying a two-year certificate in theology, including an ordination formation program. Some will move on to a diploma program, but National Government guidelines will not allow students with less than a Year 12 qualification to undertake diploma or degree studies.

Please pray for our supported student Will Kepolo in his first year.

Mission of the Month The Mission to Seafarers

The Mission to Seafarers is an international mission of the Anglican Church. MTS cares for the practical and spiritual welfare of seafarers of all nationalities and faiths. There are 230 Mission sites around the world.

At the four centres in Victoria – Melbourne, Portland, Geelong and Hastings – work is carried out by a small number of staff, chaplains and volunteers who give freely of their time 365 days of the year.

Each centre houses the ‘Flying Angel Club’ where seafarers are welcomed by a friendly face and can contact their families by phone or internet, and receive counselling during times of injustice or distress. The MtSV ship visiting program supports crew who do not receive shore leave and is a vital service to ensure these crew have the provisions and support they require.

While most seafarers are well treated, some are still abandoned in ports far from their homes, or remain unpaid or forced to work in unsafe or unacceptable conditions. In such situations, the Mission plays a vital role in providing practical care and moral support.

See the display in the foyer for more information, and if you enjoy knitting, now is the time to start, as beanies and scarves are ALWAYS needed!

Sea Sunday is 13th July, when we will collect the knitted items. Monetary donations can also be made by placing funds in an envelope marked Mission to Seafarers and putting in the collection bag at church.

Emily specialises in creating original compositions, contemporary arrangements with a twist, and experimental improvisations.

Emily really doesn't sit comfortably in a single genre, rather embracing variety and a broad scope from jazz, celtic traditional, classical and
