Prayer of the Day

O God, glorious and faithful, you reveal the beauty of your face to those who seek you with a sincere heart:

A Reading from the Book of Daniel

As I watched,
thrones were set in place,
and an Ancient One took his throne;
his clothing was white as snow,
and the hair of his head like pure wool;
his throne was fiery flames,
and its wheels were burning fire.
A stream of fire issued
and flowed out from his presence.
A thousand thousand served him,
and ten thousand times ten thousand stood attending him.
The court sat in judgement,
and the books were opened.
As I watched in the night visions,
I saw one like a human being
coming with the clouds of heaven.
And he came to the Ancient One
and was presented before him.
To him was given dominion
and glory and kingship,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion

that shall not pass away,
and his kingship is one that shall never be destroyed. Daniel 7.9-10, 7.13-14
Hear the word of the Lord, Thanks be to God.

Psalm 97

The Lord is king; let the earth rejoice:

let the multitude of islands be glad.

Clouds and darkness are round about him:

righteousness and justice

are the foundation of his throne.

Fire goes before him:

and burns up his enemies on every side.

His lightnings light the world:

the earth sees it and quakes.

The mountains melt like wax before his face:

from before the face of the Lord of all the earth.

The heavens have proclaimed his righteousness:

and all peoples have seen his glory.

They are ashamed, all those who serve idols

and glory in mere nothings:

all gods bow down before him.

Zion heard and was glad,

and the daughters of Judah rejoiced:

because of your judgements, O God.

For you, Lord, are most high over all the earth:

you are exalted far above all gods.

The Lord loves those that hate evil:

the Lord guards the life of the faithful,

and delivers them from the hand of the ungodly.

Light dawns for the righteous:

and joy for the true of heart.

Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous:

and give thanks to his holy name.

A Reading from The Second Letter of Peter

For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honour and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, ‘This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.’ We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

2 Peter 1.16-19

Hear the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, ‘Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.’ He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, ‘This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!’ Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus. As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. So they kept the matter to themselves, questioning what this rising from the dead could mean. Mark 9.2-10

For the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Dean's Desk

Congratulations to the Rev'd Kate Campbell, who this week was presented with a special award for her role in Police Chaplaincy. This is a testament to the great influence Kate's pastoral work is having amongst the policing community - which is no surprise to us, given her gentleness and pastoral wisdom and insight, and the way she holds space for others. Thank you, Kate, for your ministry in our midst, and in the wider community.

Please pray for Chapter as we meet today; there are three substantial proposals we'll be considering, among our regular business and continuing to develop the strategic plan.

Next Saturday we're hosting one of the Lay Reader seminars. Lay Readers are asked to participate in one seminar a year as part of their development. We give thanks for our Lay Readers, Iain, Kaye, and Christine, who join me, and the Rev'ds Kate, Heather, and Tim in covering ministry across the parish.

And lastly, but certainly not least: Congratulations to Lauren, Jessica, Mitchell and Tristan, who today are being confirmed by the Bishop. We are so grateful for the witness of faith this represents and pray for all of you as you make this commitment to following in Jesus' footsteps. May you know the overshadowing of the Spirit as you continue to own the promises made in your baptism.

Keren

We congratulate the Rev'd Kate Campbell on receiving a Victoria Police Regional Commendation for Outstanding Pastoral Care and Support in the Wellington Service Area. Photo to come!

If you have not wandered around the back of the cathedral lately, you may not have seen our new back door. It is wider and will never rot like our last wooden one. Also checkout the gardening works to make the Quiet Garden more open for safety and security purposes. We also aim to have as many plants as possible able to be used by our 2 church flower ladies. A few recently have been planted for colour. Thanks to David, Tony and Sally, the red roses have been pruned as well.

Reminder to visit our Prayer tree and write and attach a prayer tag from the box. Faster NBN has been installed this week, the livestream shouldn't play up now, a result of the new security cameras taking up most of our internet.
